

FLAGGING MANIFESTO 2014

This is a performance
a visual code
an embodied language Where time is black and space is red
I am becoming a signal
My body is a trigger
I want to be a gun
to be the impossible
the ecstatic act
fired towards a crowd
This is the sound of flagging Genesis at the beat gnawing into the future
This flag heralds
a time for movement
a time for action
Fused bodies alight
